

Putra Business School in Malaysia together with Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent is beginning to enroll students in the MBA program.

Putra Business School is a school affiliated with the University of Putra Malaysia (UPM). According to the QS ranking of the TOP Universities in the World, Putra University in Malaysia is ranked 132nd.

PBS aims to nurture future leaders that practise human governance values and principles. PBS also engages in research, consulting, and business development activities.

This programme caters to top managers who would like to have an in-depth understanding of the business world. It is designed to equip students with the ability to effectively and efficiently manage people and ideas, as well as to train them to think strategically to move their organisations forward in the rapidly changing and challenging environment.

The Putra Business School MBA program is accredited by the Association for the Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) in USA. Less than 5% of the world's business schools have received AACSB accreditation. In addition, this Program is also approved by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA) and the Ministry of Higher Education of Malaysia. These confirmations attest to the exceptional quality of the MBA courses. Students who successfully complete their General Management course will receive an MBA diploma of Putra Business School.

Putra Business School, carrying out joint activities with Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, announces the start of admission of students in the direction of General Management based on the Master of Business Administration study program.

The education process is carried out at Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent by professors from Malaysia (in English language) on the basis of an agreement signed between the universities.

The duration of the study course is 18 months, 5 semesters. There will also be an opportunity to study in evening courses.

The total tuition fee for this MBA program is $ 8,000. Uzbek citizens receive a 20% discount from Malaysia.
