

Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent and Pittsburg State University launched the admission of students to the “2 + 2” program.

On May 4, the meeting of the rector of Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, Inoyatkhodjaev J.Sh. and the President of Pittsburg State University, Scott S.A. was held on the Zoom platform.

The meeting began with the words of congratulations on the beginning of the admission of students to the PSU and TTPU's “2 + 2” Bachelor's degree program on the direction of “Mechanical Engineering”.

During the conversation, the parties discussed plans for the Master's program and also to develop another 2+2 program for TTPU students of Civil Engineering and Architecture.

“The beauty of our university is that our students will be able to receive not only Italian, but also American education,” said Oybek Djhuraev, Head of TTPU's marketing department.