

International relations are developing

On October 21, Hiroaki KAWABATA, Vice-President, Director, and Professor of Aichi Prefectural University, Japan, also visited the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent during his visit as an observer of the Presidential election of the Republic of Uzbekistan. During the visit, Mr.KAWABATA got acquainted with the activities of the university campus and agreed on future cooperation. During the meeting, an agreement was reached on the establishment of scientific cooperation between professors and teachers and the implementation of a student exchange program for students of “Information Technology”.

