

THE TRAINING OF THE SPACECOM PROJECT IS HELD AT ARTESIS PLANTIJN HOGESCHOOL ANTWERPEN

On June 13, 2022, the weekly training meeting of the European Union Erasmus+ CBHE program on the SPACECOM project began at Artesis Plantijn University College of Antwerp (AP Hogeschool Antwerpen). This meeting includes the networking, coordination meeting of consortium partners and special training on FPGA Programming and Software Defined Radio (SDR).

On the first day of the meeting, all partners of the project:

2 European universities: Technical University Sofia (Bulgaria), AP Hogeschool Antwerpen (Belgium), and 6 universities of Uzbekistan: Tashkent University of Information Technologies (Tashkent) – project coordinator; Fergana Polytechnic Institute (Ferghana); Tashkent State Technical University (Tashkent); Tashkent University of Information Technologies Karshi Branch (Karshi); National University of Uzbekistan (Tashkent); Astronomical Institute of the Uzbekistan Academy of Sciences (Tashkent); Retraining In-Service Center of Academic Staff in Tashkent University of Information Technologies (Tashkent) and representatives of Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent (Tashkent) were attended the event.

