

A discussion of the constitutional law draft of the Republic of Uzbekistan was held at the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent

On July 14, 2022, there was a discussion of project of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan “Development of amendments and additions to the Constitution of Uzbekistan” with the participation of employees, professors, students of Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent.

Shamsiddin Amonov, the head of Almazor district justice department, took part in video conference, and discussed the changes and additions expected to be added to the Constitution, and detailed their relevance.

Amendments to more than 60 articles of the Constitution and addition of 6 new articles are under consideration.

During the event, the participants expressed their opinions on the draft Constitutional law and received answers to their questions.