

A memorandum on the development of green energy was signed

In the process of globalization, due to the increasing demand for energy and constantly rising energy prices, it is necessary to develop a “green” energy sector using modern, clean and renewable energy.

In order to develop the green energy, Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent signed a memorandum of cooperation with “Solar Nature” company

