

Music club for development of instrumental and musical performance of the university students

To permorm the first of 5 initiatives by the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh.M.Mirziyoyev to increase the interest of young people in music, painting, literature, theater and other types of art, to reveal their talents, a music and national musical instruments club is organized at the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent.

The role of this club is incomparable to develop the abilities of students and young people in the university, to acquire knowledge and form them as high moral personalities, comprehensively prepare them for life, enhance the scientific and creative potential of high moral, independently thinking talented young people and organization of leisure time, supporting their practical and creative interests.

More than 20 young people show their talents in the club under the guidance of Saparbayev Mansur, a graduate of the State Conservatory of Uzbekistan, an experienced specialist who worked for many years in the State Philharmonic of Uzbekistan.

“Learning to play musical instruments primarily contributes to the development of emotional intelligence, hand, finger and foot skills. This, in turn, improves a person’s cognitive abilities,” says head of the club Saparbayev Mansur.

In this club, young people diligently learn to play the piano, dutor, guitar, sing and adjust the timbres of their voices. Also a world music masterpieces are performed by talented and active students.

During the academic year 2022-2023 club members are actively involved in cultural and educational activities carried out in accordance with the annual work plan approved by the “Work with Youth” department.
