

Erasmus+ Capacity Building of Higher Education (CBHE) “Multidisciplinary Skills for Artists’ Entrepreneurship (MUSAE) project

Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, State Conservatory of Uzbekistan and National Institute of Fine Arts and Design named after Kamoliddin Behzod jointly launched “Entrepreneurship skills in Art, Music and Creativity” course on the basis of the Erasmus+ Capacity Building of Higher Education (CBHE) “Multidisciplinary Skills for Artists’ Entrepreneurship (MUSAE) project”. Under this program, four different teams were created which includes 18 students in total from each university and institute. Each team works on the course teamwork that is focused on Art, Music and Creativity and develops their own business model as the final project work. After successful completion of the course those students have to attend in two weeks of student workshop and training in Belgium. The final project work will be defended in closing ceremony of Erasmus+ (CBHE) “Multidisciplinary Skills for Artists’ Entrepreneurship (MUSAE) project”.

