

Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent announces a competition to determine the design firm for the design of the new Technopark project.

“Implementation of the design project for the facility of the “New Building of the IT Technopark of the Turin Polytechnic University in the city of Tashkent” (the amount of work performed will be discussed with the company that makes the working project).