

“Fine art” contest was held at the university

Within the framework of the “5 important initiatives” put forward by the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Sh. Mirziyoyev, in order to increase the interest of young people in music, literature, painting, theater and other types of art, and to reveal their talent, on March 29, 2023, “Fine art” art competition was organized among university students and academic lyceum students. They demonstrated their talents in a free style on various topics.
