

“Books and reading – a mirror of human spirituality”

On March 31, 2023, a literary contest “Books and reading – a mirror of human spirituality” was held at Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent within the framework of book lovers’ club meetings. In the contest, the teams formed from book-loving members, competed in four conditions. The contest was very interesting and in high spirits.

According to the results of the contest conditions, the 1st place was won by “Flight of Thought”, 2nd place by “Javahir” and 3rd place by “Koinot”. All participants were awarded with diplomas and a set of books as souvenirs.

