

An annual scientific and practical conference was held at Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent

On April 27, 2023, a scientific-practical conference was held dedicated to the 14th anniversary of Turin Polytechnic university in Tashkent, with participation of professors and teachers, researchers and students.

The lectures of the conference were devoted to topics such as mechanical engineering, energy, natural sciences and mathematics, ecology and environmental problems, alternative energy sources and material science.

In particular, topics about the students' proposals for the production of large quantities of alternative energy sources, the construction of solar and wind power plants in Uzbekistan, dedicated to the applications of chemistry, physics, and modern mathematics. is doing

At the end of the event, the first vice-rector of the university, A. Ashurov, congratulated the participants on the fact that the scientific conference was very useful and uplifting from all sides, and emphasized that it was a real scientific bridge between teachers and students, and it will definitely be continued in the future. All participants were awarded certificates and souvenirs.

