

TTPU employees participated in the next international seminar at AP Hogeschool Antwerpen (Belgium) in the framework of ERASMUS+ SPACECOM project

From June 26 to June 29, professors and staff of Turin Polytechnic University (TTPU) in Tashkent participated in the next international seminar at AP Hogeschool Antwerpen (Belgium).

The partners of the project: Technische Universität Berlin; Sorbonne University (Sorbonne Université, Paris); EXOLAUNCH company (Germany); Technical University Sofia (Bulgaria); AP Hogeschool (Artesis Plantijn Hogeschool Antwerpen) Antwerp (Belgium) and 6 universities and institutes of Uzbekistan: “Al-Khorazmi Tashkent University of Information Technologies” (TATU) – project coordinator; “Fergana Polytechnic Institute” (FarPI); “Tashkent State Technical University” (TDTU); “Karshi Branch of Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khorazmi”; “National University of Uzbekistan” (UzMU); “Institute of Astronomy of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan named after Ulugbek”; Network Center for Training and Professional Development of Pedagogical Personnel at the Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khorazmi.

At the seminar, participants exchanged views on the effective implementation of the SPACECOM project (www.spacecom.uz) at the universities and institutes of Uzbekistan.