

TTPU staff participated in an international meeting at the Technical University of Berlin, as part of the ERASMUS+ SPACECOM project.

On August 21-26, 2023, professors and staff of the Turin Polytechnic University (TTPU) in Tashkent attended an international conference at the German Technical University of Berlin (Technische Universität Berlin).

A number of European universities as: Sorbonne University (Sorbonne Université, Paris); EXOLAUNCH company (Germany); Technical University Sofia (Bulgaria); AP Hogeschool (Artesis Plantijn Hogeschool Antwerpen) Antwerp (Belgium), and 6 universities and institutes from Kazakhstan, Azerbaijan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan as: Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Mukhammad Al-Khorazmi " (TATU) – project coordinator; "Fergana Polytechnic Institute" (FarPI); "Tashkent State Technical University" (TDTU); "Karshi Branch of Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khorazmi"; "National University of Uzbekistan" (UzMU); "National University of Uzbekistan" (UzMU); "Astronomy Institute of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan named after Ulugbek"; Professors, teachers and employees of "Network center for training and professional development of pedagogical personnel under the Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khorazmi" participated.

At the conference, they exchanged views on the effective implementation of the SPACECOM project (www.spacecom.uz) in universities and institutes.

