

“Minister’s certificate”

honour

On the occasion of the 32nd anniversary of the Independence of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Fariza Nabikhanova, chairwoman of the Women’s Advisory Council of Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, was awarded the 2023 award of the Minister of Higher Education, Science and Innovation for her spiritual and educational work in the system and her activity in the field of working with female students. She was awarded the “Minister’s honour certificate” according to the order No. 398 dated August 30.

On behalf of the university team, we sincerely congratulate Fariza Nabikhanova and wish her success in her future endeavors!