

Advisory meeting for recently chosen CBHE projects

Yesterday, November 16, marked the advisory meeting for recently chosen CBHE projects in collaboration with the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, and Innovations. The session brought together representatives from MHESI, HEREs, and the seven newly selected CBHE projects.

During the meeting, participants shared their past experiences and discussed new opportunities. Presentations covered various topics related to each CBHE project, HEREs, and the NEO team. Overall, the gathering was highly beneficial for all involved.
