

Next online meeting of participants of “development of the targeted educational program for bachelors in solar energy in Uzbekistan

In collaboration with the Ministry of Higher Education, Science and Innovation, Tashkent University of Information Technologies named after Muhammad al-Khwarizmi, 7 universities of our republic and 3 universities of the European Union – the Polytechnic University of Turin of Italy, the University of Evora of Portugal, the University of Spain Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, next online meeting of participants of “Development of the targeted Educational program for Bachelors in Solar Energy in Uzbekistan (DEBSEUz)” project as part of the ERASMUS+ Higher Education Capacity Building took place on April 19, 2024.

A number of following work packages of the project at the meeting:

- coordination and management of the project
- collection of information and professional development of employees
- organization of laboratories and centers
- project promotion

and various other issues were discussed.

According to the online meeting program, representatives of each university took part in their presentations and shared in detail the results of the work carried out within the project.

At the end of the meeting, the project participants discussed the issue of preparation for the next face-to-face meeting in Italy, as well as a plan for the tasks to be solved.

