

“Talabalar Bahori” at TTPU

On April 25, the traditional “Talabalar bahori” (Students’ Spring) festival was held at the university. At this festival, the university and academic lyceum students were awarded who won the competitions in the sports categories in chess, swimming and arm wrestling. Also, dance and musical performances were presented by the university students and members of the music club.

