

A press-tour was organized at the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent

On April 22, 2024, in celebration of the 15th anniversary of Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, media representatives, as well as Italian professors under by led of Stefano Paolo Corgnati the rector of the Politecnico di Torino participated in the press tour.

During the press tour, journalists had the opportunity to learn about the university's activities, conditions created for students to acquire knowledge, engagement in sports, scientific research. They also had the chance to become closely acquainted with the current startup projects carried out by students in the university's special laboratories.

During the press tour, a masterclass on chess was conducted for students by international grandmasters, Nodirbek Abdusattorov. Additionally, various models of cars were showed at the AVT0-Fest automobile exhibition for the guests.

TEXNOPARK

lie TURIN INVEST ENGINEERING

After the completion of the university tour, a press briefing was held for journalists and media representatives, where they got answers to their questions.

