ADMISSION 2024 FOR MASTER PROGRAM IS OPEN

If you want to gain full knowledge that corresponds European standards, do not miss the chance to admit in a Master's Program at the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent. Here you can make your dreams come true and become a sought-after expert in the field of engineering and business administration. TTPU has all the opportunities to acquire theoretical and practical knowledge that are necessary for every future expert.

For this academic year, the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent offers to continue their master's studies in the following areas:

- "Information and Communication Engineering": Quota: 25

- "Restoration and Conservation of Historical Monuments": Quota: 25

- "Business Management" (Master of Business Administration – MBA): Quota: 100

Future Master students must provide a bachelor's degree and a certificate of English language knowledge of at least B1 level. Upon successful completion of the Master's Program, they receive a diploma issued by the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent.

*Applicants for Master's Program must register through the website of the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent and upload the relevant documents listed on the website before August 25, 2024.

Admission to Master's Programs will be carried out on a competitive basis.