

DUBAI 2020 EXPO Results of the 1st stage of the competition of innovative start-up projects and ideas

In February of this year, the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent announced a Republican competition of startup projects in 9 directions.

According to the results of the competition, more than 100 projects were received in the following areas:

- Automotive and mechanical engineering – 25 projects;
- Energy – 5 projects;
- Information technology – 18 projects;
- Architecture and construction – 12 projects;
- Agriculture – 27 projects;
- Light industry – 8 projects;
- Medicine and pharmaceuticals – 8 projects;
- Sports and physical education – 3 projects;

According to the results of the competition, 33 projects in the following areas were selected by university officials:

- Automotive and mechanical engineering – 10 projects;
- Information technology – 12 projects;
- Architecture and construction – 1 project;

- Agriculture – 3 projects;
- Light industry – 1 project;
- Medicine and pharmaceuticals – 5 projects;
- Sports and physical education – 1 project:

The winners of the competition will be announced in June of this year after consideration of selected innovative projects with the participation of their authors.