

COVID-19

For the purpose of effectively fighting against the coronavirus COVID-19 and preventing the spread of the disease in our republic,

Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent announces a contest of ideas!

Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent gives you an opportunity of participating in the competition with your innovative ideas and projects.

You can give ideas and suggestions in the following areas:

1. The role of the media (television, radio, social networks, etc.) in the effective organization of leisure activities of citizens during quarantine;
2. Measures on the remote organization of work, teaching and studying during quarantine for employees (mainly the service sector), students and pupils;
3. Measures on using disinfectants and preventing the spread of the disease;
4. Means of rapid detection of coronavirus infection.

The university will consider and take measures to implement each relevant idea.

To take part in the contest, just send a brief description of the idea, the full name of an author and a phone number to @businessincubator by telegram messenger!
