

Another meeting of participants within the framework of the Erasmus + MUSAE project – Multidisciplinary skills for Artist' Entrepreneurship.

On May 1 and 2, 2023, a scheduled meeting was held as part of the Erasmus + MUSAE project – Multidisciplinary skills for Artist' Entrepreneurship

Within the framework of the meetings, which were organized jointly by the three participating universities-partners of the project – Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, the National Institute of Fine Arts and Design named after Kamoliddin Bekzod and State Conservatory of Uzbekistan discussed the implementation of the project, provided information on new training modules developed within the framework of the project, as well as students work participating in the project.

On May 1, a meeting was organized at National Institute of Fine Arts and Design named after Kamoliddin Bekzod. On behalf of TTPU, the report was made by senior researcher Olga Karpova.

On May 2, at the morning session, which was organized at State Conservatory of Uzbekistan from TTPU, a report was presented on the new training module by the department head Abror Hoshimov and presentations by students Jamshid Dorobov and Guzal Matchonova.

On May 2, 2023, the participants of the meeting visited Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, where on that day an exhibition of works by students of art institutions in Tashkent was organized.

The meeting was also attended by representatives of three European universities – Alfredo Casella Conservatory (Italy), L'Aquila University (Italy), L'Aquila Academy of Arts (Italy), Artesis Plantijn Antwerp University College (Belgium), Jyväskylä University of Applied Sciences (Finland), and also from Tunisia and Palestine – Birzeit University (Palestine), Palestine Polytechnic University (Palestine), Dar-al-Kalim University College of Culture and Arts (Palestine), University in Sfax (Tunisia), University of Tunisia (Tunisia).

