

An event dedicated to December 8- the day of the adoption of the Constitution was held at Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent

On December 6, 2023 an event on the topic “New Uzbekistan-updated constitution” was held at the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent, dedicated on December 8 – the 31st anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The first vice – rector of the University-A.Ashurov, judge of Almazar District in criminal cases-X.Sadigov, judge of the Tashkent inter-district Economic Court-O.Gulomova, teacher of the Faculty of international education of the Institute of Pharmacy-H.Mamatova and the chairman of the NGO “Council of young lawyers” at the foundation of the Youth Union of Uzbekistan – G'.Tursunmetova took part at the event.

The event was opened by the first vice-rector of the University, A.Ashurov, he noted that it is our duty to know in depth every article of our Constitution and comply with it.

During the event, a judge of the Tashkent inter-district Economic Court O.Gulomova as well as a teacher of the Faculty of international education of the Institute of Pharma X.Mamatova spoke out and touched on the essence and significance of our Constitution in the new edition. In particular, in the process of improving the Constitution, the active participation of our people, the new norms that took over from our reformed Prime and their enormous importance in our lives were mentioned.

Also, Judge of the Almazar district X.Sadigov mentioned that the principle of “Man – society – state” was taken as a basis in our Constitution in the new edition, that is, each article reflects the value of man, his rights and freedoms.