On the 15th of September 2021, the head of the international cooperation and academic mobility department of the Eurasian technological university visited Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent. The purpose of the visit is the academic cooperation between two universities. During the meeting have been agreed to start the student exchange program in "Software Engineering" from Spring 2022.

