

A delegation consisting of representatives of “Allur Group of Companies” visited our university

The purpose of the visit is to study the positive experience of the system of training specialists in the field of the modern automotive industry at Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent. During the meetings, it was agreed to cooperate in the field of training in the automotive industry.

■

■

■

■